Weaver Is Elected Mayor; 3 Councilmen And Tax Collector Are Re-elected

Gettysburgians elected William G. Weaver, former burgess, as their mayor Tuesday and returned to office all local incumbents seeking re-election.

A total of 2,265 of the town's 3,600 eligible voters went to the polls and joined their fellow countians in ticket cutting which slowed the work of the election board.

Principal beneficiary of the town's ticket slashing was Sheriff Dawson R. Miller. The town voted strongly Republican for every office except sheriff. There it gave Miller, a Democrat remembered as manager of American stores here for many years, a 1,335 to 910 lead over his Republican opponent, Fred W. Renner.

WEIKERT WINS EASILY

Former Burgess Weaver, who lost four years ago to Mayor Wilbur L. Plank by four votes, was returned to the post of chief executive of the borough, now called mayor, by a vote of 1,372 to 861 over the Democratic candidate, M. Hardy Nichols. Weaver carried all four of the precincts.

An even greater majority was given Republican J. Herbert Weikert seeking another term as tax collector. Weikert received 1,506 votes to 648 for Democrat Gilbert Lupp.

All of the incumbent councilmen, all Republicans, were returned to office: First Ward Councilman Mahlon P. Hartzell won over Charles E. Woodward 590 to 364; Second Ward Councilman Philip M. Jones was returned to office defeating electrician Francis L. Groff 307 to 265 and Third Ward Councilman John A. Welshon was reelected by a vote of 388 to 320 over grocer R. Kenneth Foust.

SCHOOL DIRECTORS

The Republican trend ran throughout all of the town's four precincts and into Freedom Twp. when it joined the town in selection of a school director and three auditors for the Gettysburg area merged school system — including the town and the township.

John W. Hewitt, Republican, won two posts as auditor, one for the town and one for the school area. Hewitt defeated Edward C. Beard for town auditor 1,511 to 713 and defeated a fellow banker, Paul B. Fox, 1,303 to 1,040 for the post of Gettysburg school auditor-at-large for six years.

Guy Jack Oyler, Highland Ave. teacher, defeated the Democratic candidate, Dr. Elizabeth R. Gregg, also a resident of Highland Ave. and an osteopathic physician, 1,333 to 874 for the six-year post of school director for Gettysburg.

Dr. Jacob Heikinen, professor at the local seminary and currently in Finland, won the post of Gettysburg area school director for six years 1,399 to 915 over Democratic opponent, Ronald E. Guise.

S. Richard Eisenhart, Republican, won 1,460 to 839 over Democrat Kenneth P. Murdock for Gettysburg area school auditor for two years; Republican Philip O. Neth won 1,272 to 1,055 over Democrat Jay B. Brown for Gettysburg area school auditor for four years.

The results in the town by precincts follow:

1ST WARD, 1ST PRECINCT
Auditor, John W. Hewitt, R. 206; Edward G. Beard, D. 110. School director, Guy Jacob Oyler, R. 254; Elizabeth R. Gregg, D. 146. Assessor, Eugene C. Schriver, R. 286; J. P. Cessna, D. 115. Tax collector, J. Herbert Weikert, R. 310; Gilbert J. Lupp, D. 101. Constable, Robert C. Harpster 3; Fred Swisher, 2; Richard Haller, 2; Fred Greaff, Charles Block, Stamford Hoy, Donald Jacobs, Charles Kerrigan, Bernard Maguire, Daniel Miller, Clifford Naugle, Eugene Shriver, Henry Roth, Robert White and Leo Riley, each one vote. Councilman, Mahlon P. Hartzell, R. 255; Charles E. Woodward, D. 148. Mayor, William G. Weaver, 281; M. Hardy Nichols, D. 127. Judge of elections, Mary E. Grove, 292; Catherine E. Carter, D. 113. Inspector, Robert G. Minter, R. 249; Helen I. Miller, D. 156. Gettysburg area school director, Jacob W. Heikinen, 244; Ronald E. Guise, D. 155. Gettysburg area school auditor for two years, S. Richard Eisenhart, R. 273; Kenneth P. Murdock, D. 127. Gettysburg area school auditor for four years, Philip O. Neth, R. 247; Jay P. Brown, D. 154. Gettysburg area school auditor for six years, John W. Hewitt, R. 236; Paul B. Fox, D. 170. D. P. M'PHERSON WILL PRESIDE AT EXERCISES NOVEMBER 19

Atty. Donald P. McPherson Jr., formerly of Gettysburg, now a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, will be master of ceremonies at Dedication Day exercises in the National Cemetery at 3 o'clock November 19. Senator Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.) will be the speaker.

The color guard of Camp 112 SUV will advance the colors of the commander-in-chief of the SUV and the Gettysburg Senior High School band will play the "Star Spangled Banner."

Rev. J. Harold Mowen, rector of the Prince of Peace Episcopal Church, will give the invocation. During the playing of music by the band, descendants of a Union veteran will place a memorial wreath.

LUNCHEON, PARADE
Senator Dirksen will speak following music by the Army ROTC Drum and Bugle Corps of Gettysburg College. Following his talk the 6th Battalion Field Band, Sons of Veterans Reserve of Harrisburg, will play selections of the Lincoln era. The program will close with the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, benediction and taps.

The November 19 program will open with the annual luncheon to be held by the Lincoln Fellowship of Pennsylvania at noon at the Hotel Gettysburg. Senator Dirksen will be a guest. The general public is invited to the dinner. Reservations may be made with Mrs. Bess Kapp, Times Apartments, Carlisle St., treasurer of the Fellowship, at $2.50 per plate.

Following the luncheon a parade of bands, National Guard, Army and Air Force ROTC units from Gettysburg College, veteran units, Sons of Veterans Reserve and North-South Skirmish groups will move from Lincoln Square at 2:30 p.m. to the National Cemetery for the service.

STUDENT GETS $100 AWARD
Prof. Bernard S. Kaliss, chairman of the scholarship committee of the Connecticut Chapter of the National Alumni Association of Mount Saint Mary's College, Emmitsburg, today announced that John P. Flaherty of Waterbury, Conn., has been selected as this year's recipient of the chapter scholarship award.

The $100 award is given each year to a senior student from Connecticut on the basis of scholarship, student leadership, and extracurricular activities, as well as need. Donald P. Quinn Sr., of Norwalk, Conn., is president of the chapter.

Flaherty is the son of Mrs. Mary Flaherty, Waterbury, Conn., and the late John P. Flaherty. He is a graduate of the Crosby High School, class of 1958. While attending the Mount, he has served as vice president of the Nutmeg Club; circulation manager of the college newspaper, The Mountain Echo; is a member of the Metropolitan Club and the Sons of Erin. He is enrolled in the education course working toward a Bachelor of Science degree with a history major. His future plans look to a teaching career in the Connecticut school system.

Paradise School Receives Bequest

A bequest of $2,000 to the Paradise School for Boys, near Abbottstown, is included in the $36,000 left to Catholic charities under the will of Msgr. John F. Stanton which was filed for probate in Harrisburg on Monday.

The will also provides for disposal of the deceased's library by inviting priests of the Harrisburg Diocese to choose from the volumes and if any remain they are to be given to Mt. St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, and Bishop McDevitt High School, Harrisburg.

Provision is also made for the establishment of a $20,000 scholarship fund for education of young men for the priesthood from the Harrisburg Diocese.

Msgr. Stanton, a graduate of Mt. St. Mary's, died October 30.

CLUB TO HOLD SHOW IN MARCH

John J. Slentz, chairman of the Exchange Club's 1962 Builders Show, announced at a meeting Tuesday evening in the Lamp Post Tea Room that the event will be held March 29, 30 and 31 in the Hotel Gettysburg press room. He appointed Carl Prosser financial secretary of the show and urged the ticket and prize committee to have its work completed by December 1 in order that the tickets may be distributed to members by that date.

Frank Hower, N. Stratton St., a local printer, was inducted into the club by past district Governor Slentz.

A letter from the Allied Veterans Council of Adams County was read asking the club to participate in the parade Sunday.

The club has been invited to attend a District 7 meeting at Moser's Restaurant, West York, November 16 at 6:15 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross, guests of the club during the annual Pennsylvania Week program, expressed their thanks in a letter.

Dave Garfinkle showed a film on the making of lenses in Japan. President Ralph K. Will presided and 23 members attended.

Plan Christmas Tea December 5

Plans for the annual Christmas Tea were made at a meeting of the Adams County Extension Homemakers' Advisory committee Tuesday evening in the West Street Bank. It will be held December 5 at 1:30 o'clock at St. James Lutheran Church. Mrs. Paul Redcay, of the Cashtown Homemakers' Club, will be the chairman. "Candles at Christmas" will be the theme of the program and displays on the theme will be encouraged among county groups.

Also discussed at the meeting were plans for a spring tour and homemakers day.

Mrs. John K. Lott was elected chairman of the advisory committee. Others attending were Mrs. Theron Bair, Mrs. Charles Lott, Mrs. B. E. Benner, Mrs. W. R. Thomas, Mrs. Herbert Zepp and county home economist Mrs. Helen D. Tunison.

SINGS IN CHOIR

Edgar M. Green, nephew of Mrs. Frank Hower, 211 N. Stratton St., recently enlisted in the U. S. Army and has been assigned to Co. D, First Training Battalion, First Training Regiment, Ft. Jackson, S. C. He will be a soloist in the Ft. Jackson Chapel Choir in a program to be presented Sunday evening.

4-H CLUB TO MEET

The Adams County 4-H Dairy, Calf Club will meet next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the lower courtroom at the courthouse. Officers will be elected and a film, "The Rumen Story," will be shown.

SHANKS TO BE SENTENCED IN WESTMINSTER

William Neil Shanks, 26-year-old former bookkeeper for the Penn-Moc Shoe Company at Fairfield who is wanted here for $50,000 worth of check forgeries, has entered pleas of guilty to the armed holdups of two banks last summer at Uniontown and Union Mills, Md.

He is to be sentenced in Westminster court on Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the two bank holdups.

Shanks, who had $90,000 in unused forged checks on the Penn-Moc Shoe Company in his possession when he was arrested last August 2 for the bank holdups, has been held in a Baltimore city prison since he was recaptured late in August a few hours after he escaped from jail at Westminster with another prisoner, OLD PRISON PAL.

Shanks had been the object of a police search since early last May when he disappeared after securing more than $30,000 of Penn-Moc funds through forgeries. Police traced him to Las Vegas but it was not until he had committed the two Maryland bank robberies that he was captured.

Police also have disclosed that they have charged Frank Bennyfield, Baltimore, with conspiracy in the cashing of the forged Penn-Moc shoe checks. Authorities here are seeking to extradite Bennyfield to this county for trial.

An extradition hearing had been scheduled at Annapolis for 10:30 a.m. Thursday but because Shanks and others involved would have to be at Westminster at 1 p.m., a continuation of the extradition hearing is being sought.

Police say Shanks and Bennyfield got to know each other when both were prisoners in the Maryland House of Correction.

Judge O'Brien Scores Big Upset Victory By Defeating Miss Alpern For High Court

By RICHARD L. GRAVES
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Republicans scored upset victories Tuesday by electing Judge Henry X. O'Brien to the State Supreme Court and winning mayor's posts in 10 cities previously controlled by Democrats.

Though Democrats rolled up substantial margins for their candidates in Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, the Republicans more than offset them in statewide voting with wide edges in suburban areas.

The losses in the other cities—including Erie and Scranton—helped to pare the Democratic margin statewide.

The Republican showing came in the face of a record Democratic statewide voter registration lead of more than 156,000. The results will cast long shadows across next year's gubernatorial and senatorial elections.

HAS 63,616 LEAD

With 8,792 precincts out of 9,123 reporting unofficial returns, O'Brien had 1,770,137 votes, while his Democratic opponent, Justice

$1,000 FIRE IN ROCKY RIDGE

Improper insulation around a furnace in the basement of the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barney C. Hines is believed to have been the cause of a $1,000 fire which broke out about 11 o'clock Tuesday evening at their Rocky Ridge Rd. residence, about six miles south of Emmitsburg.

Emmitsburg's Vigilante Fire Co. Chief John Hollinger said that Hines was awakened by the children's coughing and smelled smoke in the house. He awakened his family and called the fire department.

The chief said damage was confined to the furnace and the floor above the furnace. Most of the living room furniture had been removed from the home when the firemen arrived.

The firemen remained on the scene until 2 o'clock this morning. Thirty-five men and three trucks responded.

AMENDMENT IS CONSIDERED BY HISTORIANS

Members of the Adams County Historical Society at their November meeting Tuesday evening at the Old Dorm on the seminary campus gave preliminary approval to an amendment to the society's constitution to change the annual election from January to April and to provide for annual reports at the October meeting, instead of January.

The fiscal year would continue to coincide with the calendar year under the amendment which will be up for final action in December.

President Clarence Deardorff presided at the meeting at which a letter of thanks was directed to the Emma G. Musselman Foundation which last week gave the society $5,000 to be used in improvements to the historic seminary building on which the society has a 39-year lease.

Police say Shanks and Bennyfield got to know each other when both were prisoners in the Maryland House of Correction.

SET FEE RATE

The society also approved a resolution setting a minimum charge of $2 and an hourly rate of $1.50 for genealogical or other research. A report submitted by Arthur Weaver showed that as chairman of the genealogy committee he handled more than 300

O'Brien

$30,000. Miss Alpern has held an interim position on the bench. Though the Democrats won an easy victory in Pittsburgh, re-electing Mayor Joseph M. Barr, Democratic control of the mayor's chair was terminated by the GOP in Erie, Scranton, Lancaster, Butler, Bethlehem, Clairton, Clarion, Conneville, Meadville and York.

PHILLY IS KEY

Democrats partially offset those victories by winning the mayoralships in Hazleton and Jeannette. The key to the Democratic loss of the Supreme Court—and the key to GOP victory statewide—was Philadelphia.

Though the Democrats piled up a 79,000-vote margin for Miss Alpern, it was far short of the more than 100,000-vote margin predicted by U.S. Rep. William Green Jr., city Democratic chairman. It was the first time in years that one of Green's pre-election predictions fell short of the mark.

Heavy Republican margins in the suburban counties of Bucks, Montgomery and Delaware more than offset the Philadelphia edge for Miss Alpern. O'Brien scored a 50,000-vote margin in Delaware; 39,000 in Montgomery, and 10,000 in Bucks.

Elect Wolff

date for tax collector and Marcia L. Staub as Republican candidate were the only ones on the ballot. The Bonneville board listed this result for tax collector: Philip Little, 105; Helen A. Sanders, 81; Marcia Staub, 6.

BACKED O'BRIEN

On the state level the county joined with former President Eisenhower in backing Henry C. O'Brien as candidate for judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Countians voted 8,077 to 6,507 in favor of Judge O'Brien.

The splitting of votes between parties was most noticeable in the sheriff and associate judge elections. In many districts where the trend was Republican, a noticeable increase could be seen in the vote for Judge Guise, indicating that many Republicans split their ballots to vote for him. In the sheriff race some districts which otherwise were highly Republican switched to give Sheriff Miller a majority while some other districts, where the Democrats were strong, voters switched on that one office to give Fred Renner a majority.

Engagement

Gebhart—Long

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond F. Long, Hanover, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Gloria Ann, to Francis Leo Gebhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald J. Gebhart, McSherrystown. Miss Long is a 1961 graduate of Delone Catholic High School. Her fiancé is a 1959 Delone graduate. A June wedding is planned.

SEEK SOLUTIONS TO TRAILER TAX

Adams County Assessor Henry Hersh met with the county commissioners to discuss plans to solve the now-required assessment on trailers as real estate.

A new state ruling requires that trailers attached to any utility will be taxed as real estate and townships will have to relinquish any assessment known as a "trailer tax."

Hersh was advised by the commissioners to obtain a list of registered trailers in Adams County. The commissioners also pointed out that the new ruling requires any owner of a registered trailer court to provide, monthly, a list of persons dwelling on their property. A $50 fine may be levied against any violator.

County Home Superintendent William Jordan also met briefly with the commissioners to discuss the county home reports that must be filed with the state in order to secure reimbursement under the old-age plan. Commissioner E. Donald Scott said the reports are lengthy and take considerable time to prepare.

JUDGMENT IS TO BE OPENED The Adams County court Tuesday directed that a judgment entered October 6, 1960, by United Interchange, Inc., of New York, against Lloyd J. and Pauline L. Spangler, of Adams County, be opened and the defendants be permitted to enter into a defense thereto.

The court found that the judgment was entered against the Spanglers "by default for want of an answer to plaintiff's complaint," then held that "to entitle the plaintiff to judgment for want of an answer the statement of his demand must be self-sustaining—that is to say it must set forth in clear and concise terms a good cause of action."

In its opinion, the court held that the complaint is "insufficient" and merely states that the plaintiff agreed to advertise a property belonging to the Spanglers and in return would be paid $525. The court said the agreement shown "merely sets forth the services to be performed by the plaintiff" and does not allege that the agreement is the basis for the complaint. The complaint asks 20 per cent attorney's fees. The court ruled that "reasonable attorney's fees cannot be computed on a contingent or percentage basis; they must depend on the work done and other factors."

requests for information during the last six months. The report of Treasurer Frank Newcomer showed the society has a treasury balance of $5,206 and has spent $2,449 to date on improvements to the old dorm in which they have been meeting for several months. Weatherproofing, painting and other improvements are to be undertaken and several ground floor rooms are to be converted into one large meeting room.

Dr. Charles Glatfelter, as chairman of the library and museum committee, reported a number of gifts to the society including a gas iron, tobacco cutter and log plane from Guyon E. Buehler; an article on George Washington and the Carey House from the Misses Anna and Mary Black; a large reproduction of a painting of Pickett's Charge from Mrs. J. P. Dalbey; a number of gifts from Miss Amy Ross including a rug, and a settee from Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Wagner.

Mrs. Buehler read a humorous story by A. Allen Smith titled "Double the Guard at Gettysburg." After the meeting, ginger cookies and cider were served.

'Gas' Station Employee Burned
Cleaning Pits: Norton Redding, 21, Arendtsville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Redding, Baltimore street, is a patient in the Annie M. Warner hospital with first and second degree burns of both legs from the ankles nearly to the thighs. Although the burns are serious, his condition is not regarded as critical and he is expected to be discharged from the institution within a few days.
Redding was burned when a gasoline and kerosene mixture he was using to clean floors and grease pits at the Oyster service station, Carlisle street, ignited about 11 o'clock Saturday evening. The manner in which the fire started has not been determined.

R. B. Martin Is Elected Head Of County Bankers; Speaker Urges Dual System Support: A call for militant support of the dual system of American banking as opposed to complete federal control of all credit and banking processes was sounded by Charles F. Zimmerman, president of the First national bank of Huntingdon and secretary of the state bankers' association, in an address Wednesday evening before the annual organization meeting of the Adams county bankers' association at the Hotel Gettysburg.
About 100 members of the county association, including representatives of the 13 member banks and their wives, and visitors from Harrisburg, Lebanon, Huntingdon and Tyrone attended the meeting and dined on roast Adams county turkey. Judge W. C. Sheely, former attorney for the county bankers, was the toastmaster.

Rev. G. H. Berkheimer And Miss Regina Oyer Wed: Miss Regina Oyer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Oyer, of Arendtsville, and the Rev. George H. Berkheimer, son of Mrs. Charles F. Slothour, of Abbotstown, were united in marriage at 7 o'clock Friday evening at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of members of the immediate families. The Rev. Paul Gladfelter, of Abbotstown, who performed the ceremony, used the single ring ceremony of the Lutheran church. The couple was unattended.
The house was decorated with roses and chrysanthemums of autumnal shades.

Mrs. Henry Kalbfleisch and Miss Belle Weikert entertained thirty guests at dinner at the Betty Lou tea room, Carlisle street, followed by bridge at the Kalbfleisch home, 225 North Washington street, Friday evening. Table prizes were won by Mrs. Elmore Slaybaugh, Mrs. Harry Sheely, Mrs. Robert Miller, Mrs. Clyde Daley, Mrs. John Zeigler, Mrs. Lloyd Hartman and Mrs. Edward Pfeffer. The draw prize was won by Mrs. John H. Ticer. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. John H. Ticer, of Washington, D. C., who are spending the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Kalbfleisch.

Cyclist Hurt In Collision: A collision between an automobile and a bicycle at Iron Springs Saturday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock resulted in injury to the bicycle rider, Elmer Bigham, 48, Iron Springs. Bigham is confined to his home today with a fracture of the left shoulder and contusions of the forehead. He also suffered concussion.
Bigham was hurt when his 'cycle was struck by a car driven by J. E. Riese, 66, Fairfield. Riese told Patrolman Thomas C. Mahalik, of the local substation of the highway patrol, that he was driving west through Iron Springs when Bigham rode the bicycle out of a private driveway on the right side of the roadway.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Lauritz Melchior, 71, former opera tenor, is undergoing tests for a stomach disorder which caused him to cut short a hunting trip in South Dakota. Melchior was flown home a few days ago.

Today's Talk

LOOK AHEAD
I saw an accident one day. Two cars were demolished because one of the drivers looked backward for a moment—just for a moment. There is a valuable lesson in this incident. Most of our accidents and many of our failures come about through looking backward.

We stumble when we look backward, not because we haven't good feet, but because we are made temporarily blind. Our eyes are on the past, on dead things, on shattered dreams, perhaps.

But with our eyes ahead, we see the thing we are attempting to do, and at the same time are given the ability to side-step the pitfalls.

The gift of vision is one of the greatest that we possess. All men and women who have been useful to the world have had it. And it has guided them when all else seemed to have left them. Even staunch friends cannot take the place of this divine gift.

It is the light within the lonely heart, the beacon far ahead that guides the traveler through the dark, dark nights.

The city builder, the road maker, the inventor, the scientist, the teacher, the mother are but a few who look ahead, who are always anticipating happenings.

The employee in a growing concern who is always looking ahead is never dissatisfied. He knows he will be bigger tomorrow than today. It is something he has already planned out and determined upon. And so he works with joy in his heart, and is not a complainer.

Banks are possible because there are so many that look ahead. Imagine what the world of business would be if people didn't look ahead.

It's looking ahead that stirs the hunger for knowledge in one's mind and which urges a man on toward new goals, new attempts for excellence, and a desire to be strong in one's own right.

You can't think of these two small words too much or too often: Look ahead!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "On Giving Up".

Just Folks

COMRADESHIP

When forty years walk hand in hand with nine

And share the beauty of the morning sun,

Age telling youth what mortal men have done,

Guiding young feet to pathways truly fine,

Teaching young eyes to see perfection's sign;

God smiles upon the father and the son!

For this the world was made and life begun;

For this the woods ring out with songs divine.

Oh, forty years, if you would come to joy,

God's richest friendship waits at our command!

Let each day draw you closer to your boy;

Go walk the world together hand in hand

Would you be rich in all that makes men glad,

Then be a comrade to your little lad.

BRIDEGROOMS ALERT

TULSA (AP) — Sometimes marriage must wait for national defense.

Bobby John Schultz and Marsha Ann Cheek were being married when a practice alert sounded. Schultz and two members of the wedding party are members of the 45th Division of the National Guard.

When they dashed out, Miss Cheek waited and when they came back the ceremony resumed and she became Mrs. Schultz.

OFFICERS FOR FIRE AUXILIARY ARE SELECTED

Election of officers took place at the November meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of Alpha Fire Company No. 1 held on Monday evening in the engine house with 26 members in attendance. Mrs. Betty Kauffman was elected president, and others chosen for office were: Vice president, Mrs. Manetta Redding; secretary, Mrs. Joan Rebert; assistant secretary, Mrs. Alice Hartsock; treasurer, Mrs. Kathryn Flickinger; pianist, Mrs. Anna Rebert; trustees, Mrs. Marion Little, Mrs. Jane Hornberger, Mrs. Annabelle Ohler, Mrs. Beverly Kehil and Mrs. Doris Morgret. Mrs. Anna Rebert reported on the progress of plans for the Thanksgiving fund raising project, the annual public party on Friday, November 17, at 8 p.m. in the engine house. Thirty turkeys will be awarded during the evening and refreshments will be available.

There was a report from the cheer committee by Mrs. Kathryn Hahn, Mrs. Doris Carpenter, retiring secretary, and Mrs. Betty Kauffman, retiring treasurer. The Christmas candles ordered for the benefit of the treasury can be collected at the home of Mrs. Anna Rebert, 210 M St. The pennies from the penny project being conducted among the membership will be turned in at the January meeting. The guest package was received by Mrs. Barbara Harner. During the social hour, refreshments were served by Mrs. Manetta Redding, Mrs. Alice Hartsock, Mrs. Lela Storm and Mrs. Barbara Harner.

The next meeting of the unit will be one week later than usual, Monday, December 11, at the engine house, when a Christmas party and covered dish supper will be featured at 6:30 p.m. Each member is asked to take a $2 gift for exchange and a $2 gift for male or female guest. The December hostesses will be Mrs. Margaret Loeffel and Mrs. Gladys Kline, Mrs. Edna Koonitz, Mrs. Alice Hartsock, Mrs. Lela Storm, Mrs. Kathryn Flickinger, Mrs. Marion Little.

CENTER BOARD TO MEET

The monthly business session of the Littlestown Community Center Board will be held Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at the Center, E. King St. Mrs. Helen Garner, Mrs. Charmaine Wisnizky and Mrs. Estelle Potoff will serve as hostesses at the November meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Mason and Dixon Memorial Post No. 6554, Veterans of Foreign Wars at 8 p.m. on Thursday at the post home, W. King St.

Ocker-Snyder Post No. 321, American Legion will meet on Thursday, 8 p.m., at the post home, E. King St. Plans will be made for participation in the community Veterans' Day service on Sunday, 7:30 p.m., in Redeemer's United Church of Christ. At the conclusion of business, refreshments will be served by Beaven F. Hanlon and Norman Sentz. Prior to the regular meeting, the executive committee will meet at 7 p.m.

Prayer meeting will be held in Bethel Assembly of God Church, along the Littlestown Fish and Game Rd., Thursday at 7:45 p.m. Carl Ritter showed movies at the meeting of Explorer Post No. 84 on Monday evening at the Community Center. The next activity of the post will be to spend Saturday at Lehigh University, Bethlehem, upon invitation of the National Fraternity of Scouting. The group will leave town at 6 a.m. and return to town about 7 p.m. The day's program will include attendance at the Lehigh-Bucknell University football game. Each Explorer is asked to take a box lunch. The regular meeting of the post will be held next Monday evening at the home of Carl Ritter, Glenwyn Drive.

The Explorers will sponsor a record hop on Friday, November 24, from 8 to 11 p.m. in the Maple Ave. school auditorium. The disc jockey will be Bob Janis of radio station WSBA, York.

The Littlestown Archers will hold a 28 field shoot on Sunday at the Fish and Game Farm, near town. This will be the last shoot of the season. There will be registration from 12 noon to 1:30 p.m. Trophies will be awarded in both the instinctive and free style classes.

Boy Scout Troop 84 and Explorer Post No. 84 have been invited to attend the Fish and Game meeting. Assistant Scoutmaster Victor Reynolds, who will preside for the troop session, has requested that

CLASSES HOLD ANNUAL DINNER

Approximately 75 persons attended the annual banquet for members of the Loyalty Class, taught by Mrs. Carl H. Baumgardner, and the Men's Class, taught by Samuel J. Snyder, of St. Paul's Lutheran Church held on Monday evening in the church social hall. Prior to the meal, which was served by the Starr Bible Class of the Sunday School, the invocation was offered by the Rev. Lawrence H. Roller, pastor. Samuel Snyder served as toastmaster. There were remarks from the teachers of the classes, Mrs. Baumgardner and Mr. Snyder. Entertainment was provided by Mrs. Robert Crawford, Hanover R. D., a student at South Western High School. Mrs. Roger J. Keefe was chairman of the evening's program committee. A Christmas party will be held in connection with the next regular meeting of the Loyalty Class on Monday, December 4, at the church. There will be an exchange of $1 gifts.

The following members of the Library Club of Littlestown High School attended the library seminar held on Friday at Millersville State College: Linda Oberlander, Susan Beachler, Rosalie Sager, Connie Grove, Pamela Stonifer and Ann Shadle. They were accompanied by their faculty advisor, Donald C. Feeser. At a special assembly of Littlestown Junior High School last week, a one-act play was presented by the following cast of characters: Anna Mayers, Peggy Myers, James Rohrbach, Martha Ritter, Fay Worley, Dorothy Brent, Earle Black Jr., Kenneth Mayers and Linda Sentz. Miss Dorothy P. Crabbs, junior high dramatics advisor, was director. The high school principal, Frank E. Basehor, spoke to the students on the subject of "School Policies."

Paul C. Glenn, Gettysburg, Adams County game protector, will be the guest speaker at the November meeting of the Littlestown Fish and Game Association this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the Fish and Game clubhouse, near town. Mr. Glenn will show a film distributed by the Pennsylvania Game Commission.

Boy Scout Troop 84 and Explorer Post No. 84 have been invited to attend the Fish and Game meeting. Assistant Scoutmaster Victor Reynolds, who will preside for the troop session, has requested that

Alabama May Get Bid To Play In Rose Bowl; Other Bowl Pictures Are Cloudy

By TED SMITS
Associated Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP)—The always cloudy college football bowl picture has a new element of uncertainty this year—a Big Ten team may not be invited to the biggest of them all, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. There is at least a fair chance Alabama might get the bid.

The working agreement between the West Coast and the Big Ten has expired, although Minnesota was invited last year. There is some disagreement with the Big Ten over the game and the upshot could be a switch by the West Coast group to another area for the visiting team.

Among the teams almost certain to be invited somewhere come the bowl season are Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana State and possibly Georgia Tech of the Southeastern Conference; all-conquering Texas of the Southwest Conference; Maryland and Syracuse on the Eastern seaboard and Army and Navy if they descend to go. Any way the pie is cut, the Southeastern Conference gets the big bowl share.

TV IS FACTOR

Television is a big factor in the bowl picture. Sponsors want teams with colorful performers and broad regional appeal. Since big money is involved, bowl selectors pay heed. This could work against such fine, unbeaten teams as Colorado and Rutgers.

Here is how the major bowls shape up:

ROSE, at Pasadena, Calif., Jan. 1—UCLA, 2-0 in Big Five play, seems to have the inside track as the Western team, with the issue probably to be decided Nov. 25 in the game with Southern California. Ohio State and Minnesota, unbeaten in the Big Ten, would seem to have first call, but Ken Hooton, a director of the Big Ten Club of Southern California, thinks the academic Senate of Ohio State might veto the game, and that Minnesota might not want a repeat appearance.

All this points to Alabama as a possibility.

COTTON BOWL

COTTON, at Dallas, Jan. 1—Top-ranked Texas seems sure to be host team, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana State, Georgia Tech and Auburn of the Southeastern Conference are all possible opponents.

SUGAR, at New Orleans, Jan. 1—The stands are segregated and no teams with Negro players will be invited. That points to an all-Southeastern Conference game, and again the possibilities are Louisiana State, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia Tech and Auburn.

ORANGE, at Miami, Jan. 1—One team will come from the Big Eight but this does not have to be the conference champion, now shaping up as Colorado. "If Colorado falls by the wayside, then we have Missouri or Kansas," says Ernie Seiler, Orange Bowl president. Georgia Tech and Syracuse are possible opponents to the Big Eight representative.

TOP EAST TEAMS

GATOR, at Jacksonville, Fla., Dec. 30—The goal is to match a Southeastern team against one from the East. The Eastern group includes Maryland, Syracuse, Army and Navy.

BLUEBONNET, at Houston, Dec. 16—One of the top Southeastern teams is wanted for one opponent, or possibly Navy. For the home team the runner-up in the Southwest Conference will be sought. This could be the winner of Saturday's Rice-Arkansas contest.

LIBERTY BOWL, at Philadelphia, Dec. 16—Maryland, Syracuse, Villanova, Rutgers, Army and Navy are best prospects for host team. For opponents, one of the tough Southeastern Conference teams is being considered along with Rice, Utah State, Miami of Florida, North Carolina and Duke.

GOTHAM, at New York, Dec. 9—Army and Syracuse have been invited. Both are proving coy. Maryland, Miami of Florida, and Georgia Tech are possibilities. Coming as it does the week after the NCAA television program concludes with the Army-Navy game, this new bowl has a momentum TV audience that could help in landing a major attraction.

May Form Class Of "Slinnastics"

A ladies' "slinnastics" class, a physical fitness program for women 18 years and older, will be formed under the sponsorship of the recreation department if enough interest is shown.

Lee Raffensperger, recreation director, said today that, if the program materializes, sessions will be held Wednesday evenings at the high school. Those interested are requested to get in touch with Raffensperger at his office in the high school building.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

MAC HAS NEW BALL TOTING GRID LEADER

In an unusual turn of events, last week's leading ball-carrier of the Middle Atlantic Conference's university division relinquished his lead to a player who did not appear in a conference game on Saturday.

Lafayette's John Contarino, Senior from Woodbury Heights, N. J., led a week ago with 239 yards, while Bucknell's Ray Cosgrove, Pittsburgh, Senior, ranked second with 238 yards.

Contarino, however, ran afoul of Rutgers' defenses on Saturday and emerged with a rushing total of minus two yards. Cosgrove, whose rushing total was not altered by his appearance in a nonconference game with Buffalo, inherited the rushing lead with a one-yard advance over Contarino.

Sam Mudie, of Rutgers, retained his scoring lead—34 points in three conference games—but gained new challengers in Delaware's Joe Slobojan and Mike Brown. Slobojan moved into second place with 24 points while Brown pulled abreast of third-ranked Charles Kuntzleman, of Muhlenberg with 18.

LITTLE, PARSONS LEAD

Gettysburg's Earl Little continues to lead in individual passing and total offense. The Bullet star, a native of Gettysburg, has connected on 38 passes for 346 yards and two touchdowns for the passing lead and has added an additional 30 yards for the top spot offensively.

Other division players to retain statistical leads are Phil Parsons, of Gettysburg, tops in pass receiving with 11 catches, and Joe Elliott, of Bucknell, the division's leading punter with an average of 37.5 yards a punt.

Team statistics reveal Gettysburg is second in pass offense, averaging 88.2 yards; passing defense, second, 41.5 yards; punting, second, 34.5 yards; rushing offense, sixth, 110.2 yards; rushing defense, fifth, 182 yards; total offense, fifth, 198.5 yards; total defense, fourth, 223.5 yards; scoring, sixth, 10 points per game.

FIELD GOAL IS BIG WEAPON ON COLLEGE GRID

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The field goal has become the ultimate weapon in close football games this year as the college footballers have adopted the pros' attitude that three points is better than a long-shot chance for six.

Almost two-dozen major college games have been decided by the field goal so far, with many crucial conference and prestige games still to come.

The trend toward increased use of the three-pointer began when the rule-makers widened the goal posts a few years back instead of moving them 10 yards forward to the goal line.

USED IN SOUTH

So far the Southeastern and Southwest conferences have been the key users of the field goal. Durwood Pennington of Georgia has won three games for the Bulldogs with his accurate kicking, one a 52-yard shot that beat Kentucky 16-15. This came after he had made one from 47 yards only to have a five-yard penalty nullify the goal and force his longer-range boot.

At Southern Methodist, John Richey kicks 'em barefoot if he has to. He beat the Air Force 9-7, breaking a 13-game victory drought for the Mustangs, with a 30-yard barefoot shot.

MATHER A THREAT

"The teams all are trying to protect themselves against the two-point situation," says SMU Coach Bill Meek. "And a field goal does it."

Greg Mather, Navy's fine end, beat Notre Dame 13-10 last week with a 22-yard field goal, his second of the game, and eighth of the year. He kicked three in one game, a 37-19 win over Detroit. "Any time we get within shooting distance, he's a threat and shooting distance for him is anywhere where the 50," says Navy Coach Wayne Hardin of Mather. "That takes a lot of pressure off our quarterbacks."

Bill Bridges Is Top ABL Scorer

CHICAGO (AP)—Bill Bridges, a 6-foot-5 forward with Kansas City, is leading the American Basketball League in scoring with a 25.3 game average through Monday's games.

Bridges has 76 points in three games and holds a narrow lead over Roger Taylor of Cleveland in the newly formed league. Taylor has averaged 24.5 in two games and Hal Lear of Los Angeles has a 24.0 mark.

Defense apparently is receiving considerable attention in the ABL. Only one team is averaging better than 100 points a game and that is the Los Angeles Jets with a 109.3 average.

JIM SAXTON IS SELECTED BACK OF WEEK

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

Jim Saxton, the lightfooted flyer for Texas' stampeding Longhorns, was named The Associated Press college football Back of the Week today.

Saxton was cited for his performance in Saturday's 27-0 victory over Southern Methodist, a victory that kept Texas in the unbeaten-untied class and helped lift the Longhorns into the No. 1 national ranking.

As usual, Saturday's backfield stars were plentiful and many were nominated for top honors. Among them were Jerry Stovall of Louisiana State, Sandy Stephens and Bill Munsey of Minnesota Dick Shiner of Maryland, Ernie Davis of Syracuse, Eddie Wilson of Ohio State, Bobby Smith of UCLA, Butch Blume of Rice, Mel Renfro of Oregon, Ray Farris of North Carolina and Bill Whaley of The Citadel.

79-YARD SPRINT

SMU held Texas scoreless until the third period, when Saxton broke the Mustang resistance with a 79-yard touchdown sprint. The slender 165-pounder also led another scoring drive, finished the afternoon with 173 yards in 16 carries, and for good measure got off a 54-yard punt.

Stephens, Munsey and Stovall played standout roles in two of the year's prime upsets. Stephens, selected as top back by the AP last week, turned in another superb performance as Minnesota downed then-top-ranked Michigan State 13-0. His versatile work included a scoring pass, several other vital offensive strikes and an end zone interception. Munsey, back on the field after three weeks out with an injury, accounted for both Minnesota touchdowns and starred defensively.

Stovall touched off LSU's 10-7 triumph over then second-ranked Mississippi with a sizzling 57-yard run that set up the Tiger touchdown.

GOPHER END IS BEST LINEMAN

By JIM ROGERS
MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—"I don't know what to say I'm very grateful to everyone for helping me get such an honor."

That was end Tom Hall's reaction today after being named Associated Press Lineman of the Week for his play in Minnesota's 13-0 upset victory over Michigan State Saturday.

"It sure feels good," Hall continued in his soft-spoken manner. "Give the credit to Butch Nash, though. He's the one who has done the most toward my receiving this honor." Nash is Minnesota's end coach.

SNARED 3 PASSES

Hall, tabbed by Minnesota coaches as one of the most underrated players in the Big Ten, was very instrumental in last week's victory, Minnesota's fourth straight in conference play.

He snared two passes in the Gophers' first touchdown drive, grabbed another as the Gophers penetrated Spartan territory in fourth period and then pounced on a fumble after that drive fizzled. The Gophers then went in to score the clinching touchdown.

Despite Hall's outstanding work on offense, it was his play on defense which contributed greatly to the Minnesota cause. He was constantly in the opposing backfield, harassing passer Pete Smith, and was a stone wall on end runs to his side.

TEN BULLETS PLAY FINAL AGAINST OWLS

The University of Temple Owls football team will provide the opposition for Gene Haas' Gettysburg Bullets in the season's finale, Saturday afternoon on Memorial Field.

Gettysburg and Temple have clashed five times since the initial contest in 1956 when the Bullets pulled a 13-7 verdict out of the fire. Since that time, the Battlefields have used the old hex sign over the Owls winning 42-7, 22-6, 35-0 and last year pulling out another close 14-8 decision at Temple Stadium.

Ten Gettysburg Seniors will be playing their final ball game in a Bullet uniform. Quarterback Earl Little, Gettysburg, heads the list with leading ground gainer Terry Looker, Camp Hill; punter Don Carpenter, Springfield, N. J., and halfback John Dadds, Grosse Pointe, Mich., rounding out the backfield. The Seniors in the forward wall include Phil Wargo, Shamokin, and Paul Loubri, Clearfield, ends; tackles, Bill Sarvis, Tappan, N. Y., and Gary Kerr, York; guards, Bob Coble, Pittsburgh, and Joe Wang, Philadelphia.

Gettysburg is riding on a three-game winning streak and is 3-5 on the season while Temple is 2-4-1. Temple has one more game following the Gettysburg battle.

TEXAS LEADS COLLEGIANS IN YARDS GAINED

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas marched into first place in the weekly Associated Press poll of a 48-man committee of sports writers and sportscasters Tuesday after both Michigan State and Mississippi were upended. Michigan State had ruled the roost for three weeks.

The unbeaten Texas Longhorns, 27-0 winners over Southern Methodist for their seventh straight, assumed the lead with only three games to play.

Alabama, also unbeaten in seven, took over second position by drubbing Mississippi State 24-0. Ohio State, 29-13 winner over Iowa, bolted into third place in the big shuffle.

LSU IS FOURTH

Louisiana State, 10-7 conqueror of previously unbeaten Mississippi, advanced to the No. 4 slot and Minnesota, which knocked Michigan State out of the unbeaten class 13-0, took over fifth.

The points are figured on the basis of 10 for first, 9 for second and so on down to one for 10th place. On that basis, Texas has 473 points and Alabama 410.

There are no pairings involving teams from the top ten in this week's schedule.

The only unbeaten, untied clubs in the top ten are Texas, Alabama and Colorado. Ohio State has not lost but was tied by Texas Christian.

The top teams with first-place votes in parentheses:

1. Texas (35) 473
2. Alabama (6) 410
3. Ohio State (7) 365
4. Louisiana State 317
5. Minnesota 247
6. Michigan State 202
7. Mississippi 191
8. Colorado 175
9. Georgia Tech 164
10. Missouri 19

IOWA BACK LEADS OFFENSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Dave "Hoppy" Hoppmann, Iowa State junior tailback, has taken over the individual offense lead among the nation's major college football players, the latest NCAA Service Bureau statistics disclosed today.

Hoppmann, climaxing a four-week advance from 10th position, took over the top spot with 1,268 yards gained. He replaced Jerry Gross, Detroit's brilliant passer, who gained 87 yards against Army Saturday before being sidelined for the season by an ankle fracture. Gross had gained 1,250 yards when he was hurt.

Chon Gallegos of San Jose State remained the top passer with 90 completions and a .604 percentage. New Mexico State's Jim (Preacher) Pilot holds a slim lead in rushing. He has gained 645 yards in eight games. Hoppmann has picked up 787 yards in seven games while Pete Pedro of West Texas State shows 735 yards, also for seven games.

Bill Wright of Brigham Young is No. 1 in the punting department with a 42.8 average for 32 efforts. Joe Zuger of Arizona State is next with a 42.4 mark for 19 punts.

Credits Rise To School President

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Susquehanna University's sudden rise in the Middle Atlantic Football Conference is due to the school's expansion under President Gustave W. Weber, a college trustee says.

Clyde Spitzer, chairman of the Executive Committee of the trustees, told a meeting of the Sports-writers Football Club Monday that enrollment at the college has jumped from 390 to 810 students since Weber took over three years ago.

Spitzer said "this means we have more boys coming out for football." He said Susquehanna used to have 14 or 15 football players, while it now has 45 to 60 available.

He praised coach Jim Garrett's efforts in turning out this year's team which has a record of six wins, no losses and one tie. Last year's team, also coached by Garrett, had a 7-1-0 record.

IOWA PICKED OVER GOPHERS

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—A poet once wrote that "once to every man and nation, comes the moment to decide." That doesn't include college football forecasting where you must decide every Wednesday. Last week there were 36 correct decisions, 16 wrong for .692.

TEXAS OVER BAYLOR: TEXAS HAS

romped over four conference foes to the average tune of 34-7. What makes you think they won't do the same to Baylor?

Alabama over Richmond: Almost like an open date for the Alabamians.

LSU ROLLS ALONG

Ohio State over Indiana: Where do you find a better fullback than Bob Ferguson of the Buckeyes?

Louisiana State over North Carolina: This very easily could go the other way if the LSU Tigers spend too much time re-reading the clippings of their triumph over Mississippi last weekend.

Iowa over Minnesota: The nation's No. 1 team in September needs a victory here to save its season from complete collapse.

Michigan State over Purdue: They can't stop the Spartans two weeks in a row. But the Boiler-makers are rugged.

Mississippi over Chattanooga: The Rebels start another winning streak.

Colorado over Utah: Gale Weidner and his Colorado mates are headed for the Orange Bowl and they are not to be side-tracked at this stage.

TECH WILL LOSE

Tennessee over Georgia Tech: Some of the wolves are beginning to yelp in Tennessee and that should inspire the Vols.

Missouri over Oklahoma: But not by last year's 41-19 margin. Syracuse over Colgate: Just when Colgate starts on the road back it runs into an angry Ernie Davis.

Duke over Navy: This is the Oyster Bowl game. The Duke razzle-dazzle will decide it.

UCLA over Texas Christian: A toughie but the home field helps the Californians. It is a Friday night contest.

Washington over Oregon State: Too much Huskie speed in the person of Charlie Mitchell.

REPUBLICANS LOSE DAUPHIN COURT BATTLE

By JACK LYNCH
HARRISBURG (AP)—Republicans appeared today to have won a majority of the 31 contested judgeship races throughout the state, but a Democrat seems to have turned in the biggest upset.

GOP candidates were elected in at least 15 races Tuesday while Democrats took 12.

Four other races were undecided early today—two in Chester County and one each in Adams and Fulton.

Democratic incumbent Lee F. Swope overcame tremendous odds and tradition in piling up a 396-vote margin over Republican John Mel. Smith for Orphans Court in heavily Republican Dauphin County.

HINT RECOUNT

In unofficial returns from all 145 precincts Swope led 34,654 to 34,258 for Smith.

The extreme closeness of the race indicated a recount may be sought. And 251 absentee ballots remain to be counted.

Swope, serving an interim appointment made by Gov. Lawrence, would be the first Democratic judge elected in the county since his father, Guy, of his party to win election in the Swope, was sent to Congress in 1913 by his history and the first member of the mid-1930s.

The showing of the 40-year-old Swope against the 71-year-old Smith was a bitter blow to the prestige of Sen. M. Harvey Taylor, long-time Dauphin County and state Republican power.

PARTY UNHAPPY

The 84-year-old Taylor personally chose Smith to replace Judge Karl E. Richards, who stepped

EAGLES HUNT HALFBACK FOR GIANTS GAME

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The Philadelphia Eagles are trying to obtain an experienced player to fill a vacancy on their squad created by the loss of all-pro defensive halfback Tom Brookshier.

General Manager Vince McNally made several phone calls Monday sounding out other National Football League clubs on what players might be available.

Coach Nick Skorchik said the Eagles wanted an additional player merely for "insurance purposes" and not because of any lack of confidence in rookie Glen Amerson of Texas Tech, who will take over for Brookshier in the Eagles' crucial battle against the Giants in New York Sunday.

"Don't get the idea we're afraid of Amerson," said Skorchik. "He's played well for us. He's started three games so it won't be a new experience. We feel he'll do the job that has to be done."

DEFENDS SHOFNER

Amerson has the task of defending against pass snaring Giants' end Del Shofner.

Brookshier suffered a broken leg last Sunday in the Eagles' 14-14 victory over the Chicago Bears and will be lost for the rest of the year.

"We have to feel the loss of a great defensive back like him," said Skorchik. "Don't forget the only game we lost Brookshier didn't play."

The Eagles, who have a 7-1 record, will be out to hike their Eastern Conference lead over the Giants who are 6-2. The Eagles' only loss was to St. Louis when both Brookshier and another defensive stalwart, Jimmy Carr, were sidelined with injuries.

Amerson and another rookie, Irv Cross of Northwestern, filled in for the pair.

STRONG OFFENSE

Meanwhile, Skorchik and his assistants studied movies of the Giants' games and the scouting report turned in by Bobby Thomson.

"The Giants are beginning to get a strong offensive game now," said Skorchik, "but it's their solid defense that's giving us the most concern. They won four of their games on defense and it was responsible for at least 18 points in that rout (53-0) of the Redskins."

"You'll remember they gave us fits last year in the first half. We couldn't get a play off until we made a lot of adjustments. That's still very vivid in my memory. We know we have a job cut out for us."

In another development, Skorchik said game movies of the Bears' right leg was fractured by his collision with Bears' halfback Willie Galimore rather than by a blind-side block by end John Farrington as first believed.

Skorchik said the movies showed Brookshier's leg went into the air as he made the tackle and that Galimore's knee struck the defensive back's leg as the runner fell after making three yards on an end run.

Begin Plans For Basketball Loop

The Community Basketball League, sponsored by the recreation department, will be reorganized in the near future, it was announced today by Lee Raffensperger, recreation director.

The league, which will be for full-time residents of the Gettysburg School District only, is open to all teams meeting those qualifications.

Rosters are to be submitted to Raffensperger at the recreation office in the high school building on or before Friday, November 17, after which a meeting will be held.

Democrat Wins In GOP Stronghold

MINEOLA, N. Y. (AP)—Republicans have lost the top post in a rich Long Island county almost impossibly Republican since its founding in 1898.

Voters in Nassau County elected Eugene H. Nickerson, 43, a Democratic lawyer, as county executive Tuesday by a narrow margin.

Only once before—in 1912—had the county bordering New York City ever elected a Democrat to countywide office, sending an assemblyman to Albany.

Nassau, long famous for large estates, has been called the nation's fastest growing county with an influx of industries and commuters who work in New York City.

Nickerson defeated Robert W. Dill, an investment broker, 216,151 votes to 209,581.

down last year at age 73 "to give a younger man" an opportunity. Taylor's action met with grumblings in his own party and in the county bar association.

The discontent was sharply underscored by the showing of Smith's Republican running mates who led their Democratic opponents by 14,000 votes in Common Pleas Court races.

Swope nearly upset Smith in the Republican primary last spring. He had filed on both party tickets for a full 10-year term.

Buffalo Swamps Aces In AHL Play

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Little Charlie Hodge must be wondering today why the Montreal Canadiens ended their working agreement with Buffalo of the American Hockey League. It's a sure thing he'd rather be playing for 'em than agin' 'em.

Hodge, the blond goalie who put in a 30-game stint with the Canadiens last year, was loaned to the Quebec Aces of the AHL just prior to the start of the current campaign. He was doing all right, too, until he met up with the powerful Bisons.

Sunday, they beat him 5-2. Tuesday night, the Western Division leaders ripped through the Aces' defense for an 8-2 victory. Brian Cullen, Chico Maki and Brian Smith each scored twice while Wayne Hicks and Murray Hall had one apiece for Buffalo. Skippy Burchell, and Guy Black registered for Quebec, last in the Eastern Division.

The Canadiens ended a working agreement with Buffalo in the mid 1950s, then moved into Rochester and this year became affiliated with the Aces. The Bisons are now working with the Chicago Black Hawks.

Hershey is at Cleveland and Pittsburgh at Springfield in tonight's games.

BARKMAN HAS SCORING EDGE

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—East Stroudsburg's Toby Barkman, with 90 points in eight games, not wound up his school's football season with a 9 point edge in the 1961 Pennsylvania collegiate scoring derby.

But Barkman and two other East Stroudsburg players who have games remaining.

Biggest threat to Barkman, who scored two touchdowns last Saturday against Cortland State, is West Chester's Jim Pribula. Pribula tallied 13 points against Villanova last weekend—a TD, two field goals, and a conversion—making his total 81.

"DEFENDERS" IS MORALITY SHOW ON TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—The too-familiar ingredients of the television series are all in the format of CBS' "The Defenders." There's the father-son team of dedicated lawyers, widower and bachelor. There are the weekly courtroom scenes. And there is, of course, the eternally fascinating peek into the lives of a different set of troubled people.

But there "The Defenders" resembles the average TV series stops abruptly. What makes the difference is Reginald Rose, a highly respected TV writer who fearlessly tackles controversial themes. He serves as the series' script editor and, often, as its writer.

Last Saturday, "The Defenders" started down a well-trodden path: the tipsy, spoiled girl whose car strikes a child at an intersection. The child is rushed to the hospital and emergency surgery is ordered. You can almost finish the usual plot yourself, including the final scene, with the smiling child on his way to recovery.

But in "The Defenders" the child died. The story itself was primarily concerned with the boy's parents, whose religious beliefs forbade both blood transfusions and surgery—a touchy TV subject.

Other episodes have taken on such questions as mongrelism and mercy-killing and unwed parents. Future shows will deal with a miscarriage of justice, abortion, a child rapist, and a consideration of bribery of college athletes—who are going to school on scholarships awarded for game-playing skills rather than scholarship. "Many of these shows," said Rose, "are really morality shows. We're attempting to deal with the law realistically because we feel that the courtroom drama lies here. Other courtroom dramas are glamorized. We're trying to get to the real motives of real people."

Recommended tonight: "Bob Newhart Show," NBC, 10-10:30 (EST) Jo Stafford, guest: David Brinkley's Journal, NBC, 10:30-11—features an interview with a Soviet spy.

$3.5 Million Left To Many Persons

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—The will of film pioneer Joseph M. Schenck disposes of an estate valued at more than $3.5 million. Income from the estate was bequeathed to Schenck's brother Nicholas in the will filed for probate Tuesday. Relatives, friends and household employees received bequests ranging from $2,000 to $10,000.

Schenck died Oct. 22 at 83. He had no children.

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—It's been some time now since we've had a drill on double talk.

Double talk, you remember, is the art of saying one thing while actually thinking another.

There are some who deplore double talk as a form of deceit and regard it as immoral. However, in most ordinary cases it is no more immoral than medicine.

For, in a schizophrenic world, double talk acts as the saving grace of civilization. It enables us to be pleasant to others while leaving us free to be true to ourselves within.

Here are some more useful phrases, and their literal translations, to pep up your double talk vocabulary:

"I hate to ask you for $5 until payday, but the truth is—" The truth is I've already borrowed from everybody else in the office, and you're the only sucker left. "Let me be the first to congratulate you on your new promotion, Joe." What happened to the boss—is he losing his marbles?

"You'll love this apartment. It has 8½ big rooms." That is, counting the ¾ small closets. "I don't want you to get the idea I simply hired you to be a yes-man." But if any man is going to say "no" in this organization, it'll be me!

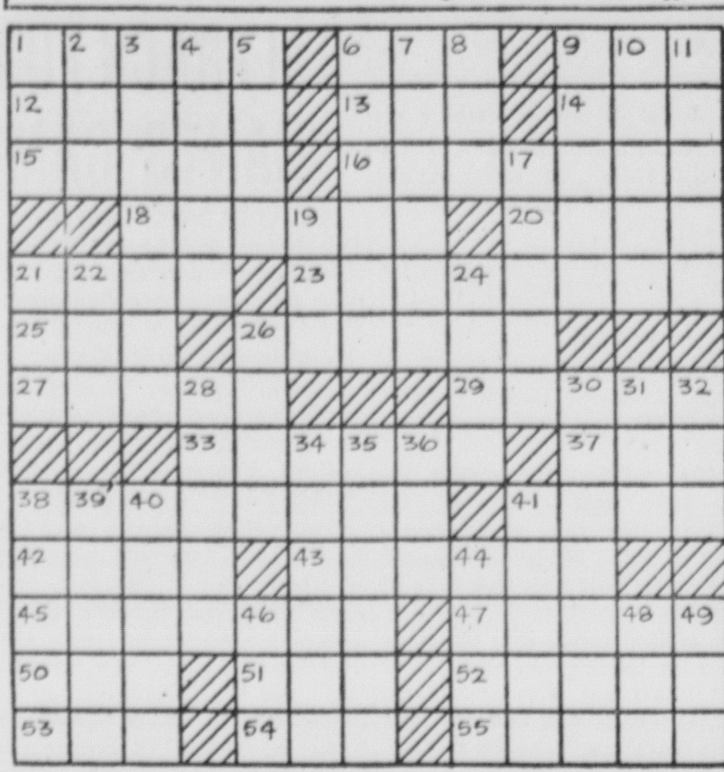

STEAKS ARE HIGH

"Oh, darling, what lovely flowers!" What've you been up to now, you bum?

"You pick the restaurant. I really don't care where we eat."

So long as the steaks cost $8.50. "If I were you, sir, I'd try the beef stew—it's especially good today." It was even better the day before yesterday when the chef first cooked it.

DUCKTAIL NOT CONVENTIONAL SCHOOL CUT

PERRY, Ga. (AP)—Does an American teen-ager have a basic right to wear any kind of haircut he chooses?

Yes, says the father of a boy suspended from school for wearing a ducktail haircut.

No, says the school principal and the school board.

The father, Walter C. Sorrells, argued Tuesday that the ducktail is a harmless passing fancy and he is going to court to prove his point.

Ducktail haircuts are popular among the rock 'n' roll set. The hair is worn long and combed to a point in the back.

The principal, Eric Staples, said the school board recently banned "unconventional haircuts" because they sometimes were associated with delinquency.

But Stanley Sorrells, 17, center of the controversy, contended that the ducktail was "the kind you see on all the popular young actors, singers and politicians."

At a hearing before the Houston County School Board, Sorrells said his son has a basic American right to wear any hair style he chooses.

"The right of choice was won when Cornwallis surrendered to General Washington at Yorktown," he asserted, "and I mean to defend that right."

Stanley's mother agreed.

Jerry Lee Lewis Must Pay Support

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—Rock 'n' roll singer Jerry Lee Lewis has until Nov. 24 to pay $700 in overdue child support or face punishment for contempt of court. Judge Edward Quick gave Lewis that ultimatum Tuesday after ruling the singer's income is sufficient to make full monthly payments to a former wife, Jane Lewis Wilkinson, of Ferriday, La. Attorneys said Lewis had been paying only $50 a month instead of the $150 the court had ordered.

Loyal Troops Beat Down 7 Hour Revolt In Ecuador

QUITO, Ecuador (AP)—A military uprising by an engineer regiment objecting to the arrest of leftist Vice President Carlos Arosemena was eaten down by loyal troops Tuesday in a seven-hour battle in the southern part of Quito.

The regiment rebelled and left its barracks early in the morning and took up positions on the southern flank of the capital. Its officers said they were supporting Arosemena who was being held with nine congressmen.

There were no immediate reports of the number of casualties in the military action.

Arosemena, who appears to have backing of a majority in Congress, was arrested around midnight. Aides with him also were taken into custody and imprisoned in the federal penitentiary.

They offered no resistance when Gen. Jacome, director of national police, approached on the street by Gonzalo Jacome, director of national security, and informed they were under arrest.

The Chimborazo regiment of engineers rose as soon as news of the arrest spread. The soldiers marched out of their barracks in the southern part of the city with weapons ready.

Three air force planes took off from a base outside the city and flew over the city. It was not clear where they stood in the political fight between the two leaders, but they appeared to be making a reconnaissance.

Gen. Angel Zurita, the armed forces commander, issued a communique promising to maintain law and order and backing Velasco Ibarra in the president's severest test since he assumed office 14 months ago.

Tanks rolled up to the congressional palace and virtually sealed in legislators at odds with the president over economic policies that have led to growing unrest throughout this nation of four million on the northwestern tip of South America.

Army leaders cut communications with the building and allowed no one to enter or leave. Reports filtered out that Congress had appointed a committee to seek a solution to the political crisis. Previously the bulk of the legislators had sided with Arosemena, who is also president of the Senate.

The president charged in a radio address that Arosemena was trying to become a dictator and said he no longer recognized him as vice president.

3 Injured When Vessel Explodes

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—Three men were injured when a pressure vessel exploded Monday night at the Bzura Chemical Co. in Fieldsboro.

The workers were testing the cast-iron vessel when it blew up. Joseph Ferris, 41, of Feasterville, Pa., suffered a concussion, possible internal injuries and fractured toes. He was admitted to St. Francis Hospital here.

Treated and released were Ralph Proctor, 47, of Hamilton Township, and Elmer J. Pastor Jr., 30, of Trenton.

DANNY KAYE SHOW SPOTTY MONDAY NIGHT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP TV-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—That infrequent but welcome visitor to television, Danny Kaye, made his annual house call Monday night via CBS. As usual, one's reaction to his dancing, singing and foreign language double-talk was, "Gee, what a talented fellow."

Danny, however, seemed in a rather subdued and sentimental mood. His best moments came when he was sitting quietly on a stool, half singing, half talking sad songs about youth and age. One song would have been a lot more effective if it hadn't been used all last season as the musical background for a camera commercial.

Least amusing moments came in the hour show's full-dress sketch, a long and extremely unfunny sequence about hypnosis. Wittiest number was a Kaye-less dance by the chorus to sounds, including locomotives and typewriters.

FCC GETS BUSY

As if television didn't have enough troubles with current criticism of the quality of its programming, now comes word that the Federal Trade Commission will start looking closely at the content of its commercials.

"Broadcasting," a trade magazine, reports that a prime FTC interest will be the commercials stating that "four out of five doctors recommend" and "nine out of 10" movie stars. They will be asked to prove it.

Back in the nation's living rooms and bedrooms, it is often the quantity rather than the quality of the commercials which is annoying. The other night this reporter counted five commercials in a row during a station-break period on "The Jack Paar Show," some network and some local.

STUDENTS IN MASS WALKOUT FROM THEATER

WASHINGTON (AP)—"This is no play for 16-year-olds," said the lady school principal from New Jersey after marching 146 teenagers out of the National Theater during the opening of "Sunday in New York."

For a few minutes, Monday night's mass walkout stole the scene from the Broadway-bound comedy.

Principal Margaret Walsh of Sayreville, N. J., who brought the youngsters to Washington on their senior class trip, told a reporter later, "We just came out because it was the right thing to do."

The exodus came about 10 minutes before the curtain fell on the first act of the show, a comedy about sex.

"MY DUTY"

On the sidewalk outside, the principal told a show official, "It was my duty to bring them out."

The principal was in tears, the show official said.

The youngsters giggled and chattered as they boarded two chartered buses for the trip back to their hotel.

"I had no idea what the play was like," Miss Walsh said later. "I thought it would be a nice evening. I had called the theater and they knew it was a school group coming. I'm sorry."

The walkout signal came after a scene in which Pat Stanley and Robert Redford embrace and talk about sex—while the stage lights go down.

When the lights went on again,

Picks Policewoman For Illegal Duty

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A man kept calling Miss Isabelle Fleisher last weekend.

She listened to what he had to say and told him to meet her Monday night on a street corner. The man arrived on time and was taken into custody charged with solicitation for immoral purposes, malicious use of the telephone and disorderly conduct.

John W. Bates, 25, Philadelphia, admitted he selected Miss Fleisher's name at random from the telephone book.

How was he to know she was a policewoman?

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Premier Khrushchev told a cluster of newsmen at a reception that the Soviet Union will drop nuclear testing "when the others stop."

Earlier Tuesday, he acknowledged that nuclear testing is harmful to health.

"We will stop when the others stop," Khrushchev said in answer to a question by correspondents. "If the West continues testing there will be more tests here."

revealing Redford and Miss Stanley in bathrobes, the school children filed from the $1.75, second-balcony seats.

The audience, necks craned, stared up to the balcony as the youngsters paraded out of the auditorium and down the long stairs to the exit.

David Powers, press agent for the show, said dialogue after the blackout scene reveals that nothing really happened while the lights were off. "It's the most normal little sex comedy you've ever seen in your life," he said. "Something like 'The Moon is Blue.'"

Blind Student Marches, Plays In Miami Band

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The girl marches briskly with the band down the football field, guided by two bells and the ringing courage of her heart.

The blazing floodlights never bring squints to Leah Russell's blue eyes; the floodlights are black to her.

"I have only one terrible fear," said Leah, 16, blind since birth. "I'm scared that sometime I may not hear the sound of the bell-players and I'll go marching off by myself—all alone, in the wrong direction. I would be so ashamed."

Almost three years ago Leah began studying the piccolo, painstakingly putting the music into Braille. Last year her Southwest Miami High band director, Marvin Mockabee, welcomed her into his 64-member unit.

"As a sitting member only," said Mockabee, "she practiced with us, played in concerts, but I was afraid to try her out as a marcher."

But Leah felt lonely sitting out the football game marches and finally pleaded to be taught to march. It was trying and often frightening for Leah.

"But her patience and determination almost brought tears to our eyes," Mockabee said. The "left flank" and "right flank" movements gave Leah trouble. Then Mockabee hit upon the bell-player guides.

As the band struts down the field two husky bell-players pound their big shiny instruments with Leah marching between them. With the radar-like hearing of the blind, Leah maintains a straight line of march—the sound of the bells measuring distance for her.

"When the bells stop momentarily, you can see her hesitate," said the band director. "But then the boys whisper, 'Leah, we're coming to the left flank. Or a right flank. Get ready.'"

Working alone in her world of darkness, Leah earns a near straight-A average. She does her homework in Braille.

Someday, she said, "I will become a teacher and perhaps help other boys and girls to march in the dark."

of a light plane which apparently ran into fog and went down in a grove of trees, killing a Montgomery County man and his two sons.

Beryl Frank, 36, of Plymouth Township, and his sons, Harry, 13, and Barry, 9, were found dead Monday in the wreckage of their plane on Bald Mountain about 20 miles south of here.

Officials said the crash apparently occurred Sunday night but it wasn't until Monday that three hunters found the wreckage of the single-engine plane in a mountain farm field in Bear Creek Township, Luzerne County, six miles south of Route 315.

Authorities said Frank had taken off at 5:30 p.m. Sunday from the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton Airport in Avoca to return home. His widow, Marcia, told police her husband and sons had flown to Wilkes-Barre from Wings Field in Ambler to visit friends. The plane had been purchased recently by Frank.

U THANT HAS DIFFICULT JOB IN U.N. OFFICE

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP) — It's not just the eyes watching that's going to make filling Dag Hammarskjöld's job tough for his successor. The very title of the job, and the fight over it, force him into self-consciousness.

Besides, the power of the office has been diminished. So it will not be unexpected if U Thant, the Burmese diplomat who replaces Swedish Hammarskjöld, does only a so-so job, and maybe not even so-so.

Hammarskjöld, killed in an African plane crash in September, was secretary-general of the United Nations. U Thant, chosen last Friday to succeed him, is simply acting secretary-general.

He will fill out the unexpired part of Hammarskjöld's term, which ends in about 18 months, April 1963.

INFURIATED RUSS

It was Hammarskjöld's willingness to assert responsibility to the fullest authority of his office, as he saw it—that sometimes angered several Western nations but particularly infuriated the Soviets. In the Congo, for instance, it was the United Nations under Hammarskjöld's leadership which frustrated Russian efforts to move in on a chaotic predicament. It was no wonder Premier Khrushchev said the Russians didn't trust the Swede.

Khrushchev in his anger went so far as to demand reorganization of not one secretary-general but of the United Nations to protect three—one each representing the West, Russia, and the neutrals—and each with a veto over what the others wanted.

FACED CRISIS

This so-called troika plan could have paralyzed the United Nations in any emergency and truly turned the world organization, which is supposed to preserve peace, into a namby-pamby debating society.

The Russians, with Hammarskjöld dead, saw their chance to push for the troika. The United States was dead against it.

After seven weeks of maneuvering the United States and Russia finally worked out a compromise in picking U Thant.

He would be only the acting secretary-general but he would seek to reach agreement on decisions with advisers he would pick. As soon as he got the job he named an American and a Russian as his advisers. He may name more.

LOST AND WON

In a way Russia lost. It didn't get three secretaries-general. In a sense it won—U Thant is committed to consulting certain advisers although what happens if the Russian or American disagrees with him remains to be seen.

This much is clear already: this very arrangement of commitment on consultation weakens the power of the office. Hammarskjöld had a much freer hand than his successor.

The Russians haven't lost their fight for the troika. They may merely have postponed it until U Thant's term is up and the United Nations has to pick a full secretary-general.

TARGET OF 103

Here, too, the acting secretary-general is on the spot since he knows, or at least can suppose, that the way he handles his job will have some bearing on whether the Russians will insist on a troika in 18 months or settle for less.

On top of all this—with all these handicaps—U Thant knows that every one of the 103 member nations will be watching to see how he compares with Hammarskjöld.

East Berlin

MRS. JANE MILLER

EAST BERLIN — Intermediate Girl Scout Troop 5 recently elected the following officers: President, Penny Baum; vice president, Cynthia Kohler; secretary, Madeline Fale; assistant secretary, Jean Jacobs; treasurer, Carol Gable; song leader, Teresa Shubart. The leader is Mrs. Ellen Hinkle, assisted by Mrs. John J. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kopp and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fissel of the local VFW were among those who visited the veterans at the Samuel Dixon Hospital Sunday. Members of District 21 visited the patients at the Lebanon Valley Hospital Sunday.

Twenty-eight palefaces were instituted at a recent meeting of the institution of Sago Council 140. Degree of Pocahontas, Improved Order of Red Men, in the VFW post home in East Berlin.

Ninety-seven state Pocahontas members also were in attendance. The Great Council degree team of Philadelphia was in charge with Alice Jakubowski as the captain.

The raising of the chiefs was in charge of the Green Indians of Honayawas Council 190, Bloomsburg, with Nora Kathryn Remley, Great Pocahontas, as chief deputy.

Those instituted were: Pocahontas, Joyce Philips; Wenonah, John.

Eisenhower Likely To Have Voice In Selecting G.O.P. Candidate For Governor

By HERB LINNEN

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower today emerged in the thick of maneuvering toward selection of next year's Republican ticket for governor and U.S. senator.

GOP circles were buzzing with interpretations of an unusual meeting which took place in the former president's Gettysburg office Monday.

In two hours of conversation, Eisenhower discussed 1962 prospects with five state GOP leaders, including two men who have been mentioned most frequently in speculation concerning the ticket.

They are Rep. William W. Scranton, 44-year-old freshman congressman, and Thomas S. Gates, Eisenhower's former secretary of defense.

BLOOM NOT PRESENT

Of particular significance was the absence of state chairman George I. Bloom at the meeting. "I did not know anything about it," Bloom said from his Washington, Pa., home.

"I couldn't have been there anyway because I have been too busy trying to elect Judge O'Brien to the Supreme Court to worry about next year," he added.

He referred to Tuesday's statewide balloting for a 21-year term on the state's highest court. Altheim County Judge Henry X. O'Brien, a Pittsburgh Republican, was opposed by Justice Anne X. Alpern, a Democrat who also is from Pittsburgh.

Bloom said he assumed the purpose of the Gettysburg session was to persuade Gates and Scranton to seek office. He declined to say how he felt about this.

MAY FAVOR GATES

Scranton has been connected with the governorship and Gates with the Senate seat in speculation so far. However, a Washington report circulated last week that Eisenhower wanted Gates to run for governor.

Gov. Lawrence is prevented by the state constitution from seeking re-election. Sen. Joseph S. Clark has announced plans to run again next year. Both are Democrats.

Conferring with Eisenhower besides Gates and Scranton were U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott; Philip T. Sharples, GOP state finance chairman, and Thomas B. McCabe, Philadelphia industrialist and a major GOP fund-raiser.

No one would say afterward who set up the meeting. However,

Peggy Willet; Powhatan, H. John Phillips; prophetess, Rosella Altland; keeper of records, Helen Altland; collector of wampum, Beverly Glatfelter; keeper of wampum, Sylvia Herman; trustee, six months, Ethel Altland; trustee, 12 months, Catherine Baker; trustee, 18 months, Kathryn Herman; first scout, Ruth Herman; second scout, Sarah Lou Hull; first runner, Ada Glatfelter; second runner, Martha Myers; first warrior, Evelyn Emig; second warrior, Mildred Chronister; third warrior, Marie Adam; fourth warrior, Mattia Hankey; first councilor, Louise Eisenhart; second councilor, Elizabeth Mumert; guard of tepee, Ruth Shabery; guard of forest, Hazel Hoffman; first aide, Mary Krall; second aide, Ruth Grim. The chiefs were escorted to their respective stumps and directed in their duties. Four additional members are Irene Bosserman, Sally Hoffman, Isabel V. Lau and Margaret Mott.

Martha Ensinger of Sagamon Council 6, Harrisburg, was commissioned as deputy of Sago Council 140. The great chiefs present gave brief talks. A white elephant sale was held and refreshments were served.

The next council will be held Tuesday, November 14, at 7:30 o'clock in the Red Men hall, East Berlin, at which time seven new members will be adopted. The charter is open for 90 days and interested persons should contact Helen Altland for membership.

The teachers, principals, personnel and school directors of the Bermudian School District will dine in the high school cafeteria this evening.

A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey C. Spangler, R. 2, in honor of the 10th birthday of their son, Michael. Among the guests attending were Mrs. Lewis Shellenberger and children, Richard and Marilyn; Gertrude Shellenberger, Dillsburg; Mr. and Mrs. John E. Yohe and children, Wellsville; Mr. and Mrs. John Nitchman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Spangler, York; Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Wolf and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Spangler and daughter, Crystal, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd C. Crook, Kathy and Joni Spangler, Joel Hertz, William Jones, Gene Saubie, Kenneth, Allen and Philip Nell, Brady and Gregory Runk, all of East Berlin. Many gifts were received.

The UCLW of Trinity Lutheran Church conducted its monthly meeting Tuesday evening in the church annex. The committee placed on display and discussed the dress, handicraft and customs of the Indians. Table decorations, favors and refreshments were tied in with the topic on Indians.

Plans Expansion Of Minute Men

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The leader of a group known as Minute Men, intended for civil defense in event of a Communist invasion or takeover, plans a 10-day series of meetings with followers on the West Coast.

Robert B. DePugh said the wildcat organization's only purpose is to promote civil defense at the grass roots and to train civilians in event of war or insurrection.

California Gov. Edmund G. Brown last week called the Minute Men guerrilla bands and estimated they have 2,500 members in California.

DePugh said at his home in Norborne, Mo., he will hold meetings this week in Los Angeles, San Diego, San Francisco, Portland, Seattle, Tucson and Phoenix.

CHICAGO (AP)—Veteran Joey Giardello credited experience with his unanimous victory over Jesse Smith Monday night in the International Amphitheater.

The program, the first major boxing show in Chicago in more than a year, was termed successful despite a loss of some 3,000 at the gate.

Giardello, the eighth ranking middleweight from Philadelphia, won a unanimous 10-round decision over Smith, his 97th victory against 20 defeats. He outweighed the Chicago middleweight 163 to 158½.

RED IS DENIED VANTAGE SPOT TO SEE PARADE

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—Former President Klementi Y. Voroshilov was rebuffed Tuesday when he tried to force himself onto the Lenin mausoleum reviewing stand for the parade celebrating the 44th anniversary of the Bolshevik revolution.

The 80-year-old marshal, who has been among those taking the salute from atop the tomb every year since the parades began, was denounced at the recent 22nd congress of the Soviet Communist party as a Stalinist.

He apologized for his sins and Premier Khrushchev said he forgave him. But forgiveness did not get him his former place of honor overlooking Red Square.

Dressed in a black overcoat and a black astrakhan hat, Voroshilov moved slowly through the square just before the parade began. An officer in the elaborate blue and gold uniform of the Moscow garrison barred his way near the entrance to the tomb. The marshal argued and gesticulated broadly. The officer just kept shrugging his shoulders.

ESCORTED AWAY

Eventually the old marshal, a former army commander, was allowed to enter the tomb. There he argued again with men in civilian clothes.

After a few minutes he was escorted out by two men in dark blue overcoats and green plush hats, the usual uniform of the secret police.

Voroshilov was taken to a spot near the tomb where a middle-aged woman in a white uniform was selling ice cream. One of the green-hatted men stayed with him as he watched the parade from there.

As soon as Voroshilov was disposed of, Khrushchev and the other members of the Presidium mounted to the top of the tomb to take the salute.

Khrushchev was bare-headed. The others kept their hats on. The Soviet defense minister, Marshal Rodion Y. Malinovsky, made the keynote speech in which he boasted as usual that the Soviet Union now has weapons "powerful enough to smash any aggressor."

NO UNEMPLOYED

HAVANA (AP) — Economic chief Ernesto Guevara says unemployment will be wiped out in Cuba by the end of 1962.

Fidel Castro's pro-Communist industries minister told a meeting of directors of state factories and farms there will be no pay increases for workers next year except for special cases. He said this would be necessary to create new jobs and to reduce production costs.

TUNA COVERS 5,300 MILES IN 122 DAYS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The remarkable odyssey of a tuna fish, the almost human behavior of the whale, and a new estimate of the distance from earth to the sun are subjects for science at work:

HOW FAST THE TUNA

The tuna fish ranges far and wide—and apparently wastes little time en route.

A giant bluefin tuna was tagged by scientists off Cay Cay in the Bahamas on June 10 this year. It was caught off Bergen, Norway just 122 days later—some 5,300 direct miles away.

That means it covered some 33 miles a day, if it started the day it was tagged, swam the distance in a straight line without any sidetracks, and was caught the day it arrived.

The bluefin tuna, which is supposed to cruise at about three knots an hour, may have had some help from the Gulf Stream current part of the trip, say researchers at Woods Hole Oceanographic Institution.

HOW HUMAN THE WHALE?

Many whales and dolphins, besides being mammals like man, are also unusually intelligent animals—and scientists have long wanted to study them in their natural roaming area.

Although the size of the ocean and the uncooperative nature of the animals makes this difficult, scientists have been able to get some strange, homey views of some, like the Pacific pilot whale. This small whale travels in hunting formations, feeding schools and even loafing groups. They have been seen to assist injured schoolmates. Mother whales even try to support the bodies of their dead young. And, like the human, the pilot whale tries to protect its young from capture.

HOW HIGH THE SUN?

Giant radar ears that keep on the lookout for ballistic missile attack have been used to get a new idea of how far the earth is from the sun.

That critical distance is the one that astronomers use to judge the size and distances of the solar system, but an accurate figure is hard to come by, and new measurements are constantly being made.

This time Radio Corporation of America scientists used the ballistic warning radar to measure the distance to three planet Venus and translated this distance into the distance to the sun. Their figure: 93,497,500 miles, give or take perhaps 200 miles.

It agrees closely with other recent measurements, but it is some 40,000 miles greater than a 1950 figure generally considered most authoritative until now.

Shell suggests 10 ways to cut repair bills

Your car is probably the second biggest single investment you'll ever make. Here are 10 pointers from Shell that can help you protect that investment. They're easy to follow. And they might well save you a lot of trouble, as well as needless expense.

1. Avoid 100-foot trips. It's a mean trick to start a cold car, drive it just a few feet, then turn it off. Yet people often park in front of their homes, then drive into the garage later on. This can increase engine wear, dilute your oil with unburned fuel and give sludge more chance to form. If at all possible, drive right into the garage when you arrive home.

2. Touch up scratches before rust sets in. You can discourage the spread of rust by using touch-up paint on body scratches. Rust also likes to plug drainage holes on the underside of car doors and body panels. Keep those holes open (a screwdriver or any pointed instrument works fine) and you may well prevent a rusted-through door or body section.

3. Check your cooling system hose for weak spots. Inspect all of the rubber hoses that interconnect your cooling system. If they are cracked, cut or swollen, they could give way at any time and cause engine temperature to soar. The result: a troublesome breakdown. Less serious, but a potential cause of overheating, is a debris-clogged radiator. Ask your Shell dealer to use his air hose to clear away clutter on the outside of your radiator.

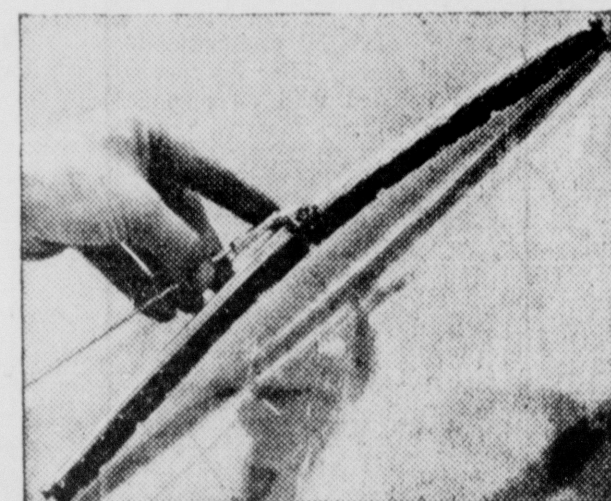

4. Look for oil streaks on inner walls of tires. It may take a bit of back-bending, but it's well worth the effort to check the side of your tires you seldom see—the side facing in. If there's any sign of leaking fluid on tire walls, tell your Shell dealer. A leaking brake cylinder or rear axle oil seals could be at fault. Either can lead to extensive repairs if not corrected right away.

5. Obey the cardinal rule of car care. A professional lubrication job is still the best way to keep your car in good health. But it should be done on a regular basis—not "every so often." For safety's sake, Shelllubricate every 1000 miles. If your car has an automatic transmission, your transmission fluid level should be checked regularly. Your Shell serviceman can do this for you during Shelllubrication.

6. Never "gun" your car to warm up your engine. It doesn't help a bit. Matter of fact, it can do more harm than good, even increase engine wear. Many drivers also think it's worthwhile to idle their cars on a cold morning. But, with today's modern engines, it isn't necessary. It just wastes gasoline. Far better to start your engine, wait a few seconds until it's running smoothly—then be on your way, but at moderate speed.

7. Check a terribly neglected little accessory. People seldom give their windshield wipers a second thought—except when it rains. But wipers wear out too. Instead of wiping your windshield, they can smear and scratch it. Wiper blades are easy to replace—but windshields aren't. Ask your Shell dealer to check your blades and wiper arms next time you see him.

8. Have your anti-freeze put in by an expert. Your Shell dealer will inspect your cooling system for possible leaks. Then he'll put in the right amount of Shellzone anti-freeze to protect your car to the temperature you specify. Notice how he checks his work with a hydrometer. You get a written guarantee of all-winter protection—with free refills, if necessary.

9. Don't let front wheels hit the curb. Banging front wheels against the curb is tough on wheel alignment—and tires too. So, approach the curb carefully when you park. This sounds like a small thing, but it can help prevent costly front end problems. (Suggestion: take a look at the tread on your front wheels right now. If they show uneven wear, your front wheel alignment may need attention.)

10. Give your car an occasional change of scenery. A steady diet of city driving adds to the combustion deposits inside your engine. This deposit build-up can reduce your car's power and, eventually, may cause trouble. But many of the deposits that come with city driving will fly out the exhaust when you hit the open road. So, take your car for a turnpike drive this weekend. It can be good exercise for it. And a pleasant afternoon for you.

THREE EARLY SWEDISH SITES RECOGNIZED

WASHINGTON (AP) — Three sites important in early Swedish settlements in Delaware and Pennsylvania have been singled out for historic landmark status by the Department of the Interior.

Secretary Stewart L. Udall announced that Fort Christina and Holy Trinity (O'd Swedes) Church in Wilmington, Del., and the site of the Printzhoof near Philadelphia, are eligible for the registry of national historic landmarks.

The registry is designed to recognize and endorse the preservation and protection of structures and sites now administered by states, other public agencies, or historical societies, and to encourage private owners of historic landmarks to maintain them.

TO BE MARKED

Owners or administrators of sites found eligible for landmark status may apply to the national park service for such recognition and will receive a certificate. Suitable markers also will be furnished upon request, Udall's announcement said.

The first Swedish expedition to the Delaware River landed at Fort Christina in 1638 and the first fortification of New Sweden was erected.

Around the fortification grew the nucleus of the Swedish Delaware settlement. The wharf of natural rocks where the first landing actually was made is preserved in Fort Christina State Park.

Holy Trinity Church, also located in Wilmington and built in 1693, is the oldest surviving Swedish church in the Delaware Valley. No other structure so closely related to Swedish settlement retains such architectural integrity, an Interior Department report said.

The Printzhoof, located on Tinicum Island, on the southern edge of modern Philadelphia, was the capital of New Sweden and the center of the activities of the colorful Swedish governor, Johan Printz.

ADENAUER TO KEEP IRON FIST AGAINST REDS

By JOHN O. KOEHLER

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, just re-elected to head a new coalition government for West Germany is expected to continue his tough policy toward the Communist bloc.

Associates say the 85-year-old chancellor will not soften despite the wish of his coalition partners, the Free Democrats.

The Free Democrats have made plain they won't press too much for a change. Party chief Erich Mende has said his group would "try to make the others see our points but we won't force our ideas upon them."

The Free Democratic ideas conflicting with Adenauer's, which include diplomatic recognition of such Communist countries as Poland and Czechoslovakia, actually are insignificant compared to the areas in which the smaller party fully agrees with Adenauer and his Christian Democrats.

MAINTAIN OLD TIES

Thus there will be no change in Bonn's full support of the Atlantic Alliance and the European Economic Community and its policy of strengthening Europe cooperation through increased political consultations.

Adenauer's first important foreign policy move in his fourth term as chancellor will be a meeting in Washington with President John F. Kennedy Nov. 20.

Authoritative sources said Adenauer will bring up three major points in his talks with the American president:

1. Defense and security of the free world, particularly of West Germany.
2. Continued refusal to recognize Communist East Germany.
3. West German readiness to take up certain technical contacts with the East German regime short of diplomatic recognition.

EISENHOWER'S ANGUS BULL IS PRIZE WINNER

HARRISBURG (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower, television personality Arthur Godfrey and a 14-year-old Jefferson County boy headlined the list of grand champion winners Tuesday at the annual Pennsylvania Livestock Exposition.

Eisenhower, exhibiting some of his prize beef cattle, won the grand championship for Angus bulls with "Eileenmere EF 5127," an Aberdeen Angus.

His entry was judged the best in competition against more than 100 Angus bulls. It marked the first time Eisenhower has shown livestock under his own name although animals from his Gettysburg farm have been exhibited by others before.

Godfrey, owner of the Beacon Hill Farm in Paeonian Springs, Va., earned a grand championship for his pen of five Hereford feeder calves.

The boy, Marshall Katzen of Reynoldsville R. 1, captured top honors in the open class steer competition, demonstrating his 1,075-pound polled Hereford, Mark Sunshine.

ELECTRIC HEAT for driveways, walks and steps

Forget about shoveling snow or scraping ice—stop worrying about icy steps and walks. Electric heating elements, embedded below the surface of your driveway, steps or pavement, can be turned on as soon as snow starts to fall.

ELECTRIC HEAT throughout the house...wherever it's needed

It's a simple matter to add electric heat in those hard to heat rooms, in the baby's room, bathroom or recreation room. Baseboard units or radiant panels are easy to install and keep the temperature exactly as you want it. For the garage, workroom or laundry portable electric heaters that plug in any outlet are ideal! Think of electric heat next time you're chilly!

If you'd like to know more about the comfort—and reasonable cost—of heating your entire house electrically, get in touch with your electrical contractor or with us. Our free Advisory Service will bring you all the details, without obligation.

Democrats Win New York Mayor, Jersey Governor

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Democrats have captured both prizes in the two big elections, grinding out an upset by electing the governor in New Jersey and easily winning the New York mayoral race.

Both elections Tuesday were intensely watched by politicians who regarded them as important in gauging how the political winds may blow in 1962 and 1964.

In New York, Robert F. Wagner breezed past Republican Louis J. Lefkowitz and independent Lawrence E. Gerosa to win his third term as mayor, as had been expected.

Across the Hudson River, New Jersey voters overturned predictions and elected Democrat Richard J. Hughes over Republican James P. Mitchell in the contest for governor.

BIG GUNS CAMPAIGNED
Both parties had wheeled their big guns into the New Jersey campaign. President Kennedy and former President Harry S. Truman campaigned for Hughes. Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower campaigned for Mitchell.

Virginia voters followed tradition by giving Democrat Albert S. Harrison Jr.—and the state organization of U.S. Sen. Harry F. Byrd—a one-sided victory over Republican H. Clyde Pearson in the race for governor.

In Kentucky, however, Republicans cracked 28 years of Democratic rule in Louisville by sweeping into the mayor's office and other top posts. The GOP also sewed up surrounding Jefferson County for the first time in 16 years.

"GOOD OMEN"
In Washington, Republican National Chairman William E. Miller called the Kentucky victories "a good omen for 1962" and a "victory of major proportions."

The mayoralty victory in Louisville was William O. Cowger, a mortgage broker, He defeated Democrat William S. Milburn, president of the Louisville Board of Aldermen.

The lone U. S. House seat at issue gave the Democrats another expected victory in strongly Democratic Wayne County (Detroit) Mich. Democrat Lucien N. Nedzi defeated Republican Walter Czarnecki in a special election to fill a vacancy in the First District.

The nation's attention was occupied by the barometer races in New York and New Jersey.

The chairman of the Democratic National Committee, John M. Bailey, said Wagner's victory was a rebuff to New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's "efforts to use the New York mayoralty campaign to advance his own personal national ambitions and a warning to him that he faces a hard fight for re-election as governor."

RALLIED TO WIN
In New Jersey Hughes was a relative unknown, a former state judge who campaigned in hundreds of towns and came from behind to win.

Mitchell was a nationally known figure as a member of the Eisenhower Cabinet. He had to limp through the campaign on a broken leg.

New Jersey has had a reputation for never staying long in either party's stall. Since the turn of the century it has elected 10 Democrats and nine Republicans as governors.

board of which he is executive secretary. Dr. Wentz read a letter from him extending his greetings to members and friends of the congregation and expressing his regrets at being unable to attend.

Major Earl Schmidt, superintendent of the Sunday School, who prepared a history of the Sunday School for the anniversary program, reviewed some of the highlights of the school of 1878 compared with present-day enrollment.

EXPRESSES THANKS

Two familiar hymns were sung with Mrs. A. Z. Rogers, a former organist, as piano accompanist. The Rev. Dr. Robert W. Koons, pastor, concluded the program with an expression of appreciation to all who helped plan the observance and the participants. He also expressed a desire that the church "continue to push forward in its Christian endeavors."

The invocation was offered by the Rev. Dr. Harry F. Baughman, seminary president.

Dr. Wentz expressed thanks from the anniversary committee to the following:

Mrs. W. C. Waltmeyer and Mrs. Emma Sheffer, for display of old photographs of the church and other views near the church site; Mrs. William Musser and Mrs. A. W. Butterfield, for arrangement of tables and flowers; Dr. Herbert H. Schmidt, for plates used in the anniversary program; Robert Morris, staff artist of the Gettysburg Times, for a line drawing of the exterior church used on the cover of the program; Lester Himes, for anniversary sign in the auditorium; Wayside Flower Shop, for the dinner flower arrangement; Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Sammel, for flowers, and others who worked on various committees.

Weddings

JACOBS—WAGGY

Miss Bonnie Elaine Waggy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Waggy East Berlin R. 2, to Richard Bernard Jacobs, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jacobs, Dover R. 2, were married Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Bermudian Church of the Brethren, East Berlin, Rev. Glenn Julius officiated.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose as her attendants, Mrs. Harold Breneman, Dover R. 4, a cousin of the bridegroom, as matron of honor, and the Misses Martha Cook and Marcia March as bridesmaids.

Wayne King, a cousin of the bridegroom, served as best man with Robert Jacobs, another cousin, and Barry Waggy, a brother of the bride, as ushers.

Edwin Meals was the soloist and Mrs. Meals the organist.

A reception was held in the social room of the church. The couple will reside in Takoma Park, Md.

The bride, a 1960 graduate of Dover High School, is employed as a technician at the National Institute of Health in Bethesda, Md.

The groom, a 1964 graduate of the same high school, is employed by Sears, Roebuck and Co., Silver Spring, Md.

Williams—Myers

Miss Mary Yvonne Myers, York Springs, daughter of Mrs. Dorothy H. Brinton, Eugene, Ore., recently became the bride of Roy Melvin Williams Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Williams Sr., York Springs R. 1, in Harmony Bethel Church of God. The Rev. Clair Mowery officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The organist was Mrs. Vincent Arbogast. Mrs. Kenneth Hefner sang "My Hero." "I Love You Truly," "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Lloyd Williams, York Springs, was matron of honor with Mrs. David Cameron, Boiling Springs, and Mrs. David Miller, York Springs, as attendants. The best man was Lloyd Williams, York Springs, with Kenneth W. Hefner, Dillsburg, and John R. Williams, York Springs, as ushers.

A reception was held at the York Springs Fire Hall. The couple will reside at York Springs R. 1.

The bride is a 1961 graduate of Bermudian Springs High School and is employed at Dillsburg Shoe Company. The groom is a 1959 graduate of the same school and is employed by his father in the painting business.

Zurgable—Oyer

St. Joseph's Roman Catholic Church, Emmitsburg, Md., was the setting for the small informal wedding that united in marriage Miss Patricia Ann Oyer and Henry Thomas Zurgable Jr. on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nickson W. Oyer, Waynesboro, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Thomas Zurgable Sr., Emmitsburg, exchanged their vows in a double ring ceremony read by the Rev. James Tumney before an altar appointed with white gladioli, white carnations and greenery.

Thomas Stoner and John Randolph, both of Emmitsburg, ushered the guests as Mrs. Lewis Rosensteel, organist, presented a recital of wedding music.

Miss Susanne Ingels, Waynesboro, attended as maid of honor. James E. Roy, Emmitsburg, was invested with the duties of best man.

Following the ceremony a dinner for 40 guests was served in the Charter Lounge at the Elks Club.

Upon their return from a wedding trip to an unannounced destination.

EISENHOWER'S AMBASSADOR PASSES AWAY

CONCORD, N.H. (AP)—R. Scott McLeod, 47, a former newspaperman who rose in government service to become ambassador to Ireland in the Dwight D. Eisenhower administration, died Tuesday night.

McLeod, general counsel to the Republican members of the U.S. Senate Appropriations Committee since last January suffered a heart attack at his home in Sutton, near Concord, in the morning.

McLeod's nomination to be ambassador stirred a Senate controversy in May, 1957. Democrats criticized his record as State Department security chief and Sen. Joseph S. Clark, D-Pa., called him a "symbol of the witch hunter" of 1953 and 1954.

Clark condemned McLeod's handling of security clearance of State Department and foreign service officers.

FIGHT IN SENATE

Sen. Styles Bridges, R-N.H., for whom McLeod had worked, and former Sen. William Knowland, R-Calif., who was then the Senate Republican leader, came to McLeod's defense. Knowland quoted Eisenhower as saying he had full confidence in the nominee and Bridges said McLeod was the victim of a "smear campaign."

The Senate voted 54-22 to reject a motion to return the nomination to its Foreign Relations Committee for further inquiry, and confirmed the nomination 60-20 on May 9, 1957.

McLeod was born in Davenport, Iowa, and was a reporter on the Cedar Rapids (Iowa) Gazette, until he became an agent for the FBI.

He resigned from the ambassadorship last January when President Kennedy took office.

York Springs

YORK SPRINGS — Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Nelson and daughter Seglinde Susanna, entertained at their home in York Springs Sunday at a farewell dinner for Chester R. Behney, who will enter the U. S. Army, November 16, and in honor of James E. Behney Sr., who celebrated his 53rd birthday, October 23, and Ronald E. Nelson's 27th birthday November 1. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. James E. Behney Sr. and sons, Chester and Irvin, William G. Criswell, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Behney Jr., York Springs; Harold L. Criswell, Carlisle.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald E. Nelson entertained at their home recently in honor of Mr. Nelson's birthday. Those present were: Mrs. Bernice A. Nelson and daughter, June Marie, Camp Hill; Norman McCartney, Mechanicsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Larry M. Nelson and daughter, Christa, Harrisburg.

Analyses of iron in ancient bricks indicate that the earth's magnetism may have declined by about two-thirds over the past 2,000 years.

The couple will be at home to their friends in Baltimore, Md. The bride was graduated from the Waynesboro Area High School in 1961.

The bridegroom is a graduate of St. Joseph's High School, and attended Mt. Saint Mary's College. He is presently employed by Steward and Company, Baltimore, Md.

A Lovelier You

CLOTHED IN GRACE. When a lovely wears evening dress, the magnificence of her bearing must match that of her attire. Anything less than perfect carriage detracts from the charm of the lady and the dress.

By their very nature, evening fashions somewhat magnify posture flaws. But awkward arms become a real glaring defect. It is one that can be corrected, though, by following these tips: Never let your arms dangle in front of the body. Let one come to rest a little behind your body, while the other falls relaxed at your side.

Never stiffen your elbows or wrists. Allow them to assume their natural curve.

Never make a show of the flat width of a hand. Turn it so that the thumb and forefinger face your public. Also avoid tensing—straightening—the fingers. To see the logic of the advice, stand before a mirror and place your hand flat on your chest; observe the awkward look of both hand and arm. Now turn the palm up and relax the fingers; notice how graceful both the hand and arm appear.

Never clutch an evening purse under your arm or swing it at your side. Whether or not it has a chain, grasp its frame with your fingertips and carry it at waist or thigh level.

Voila, your arms may be bare, but they will be clothed in grace!

CLUES TO GOOD CARRIAGE

For a lovelier figure, walk with the grace that nature intended! To check or improve on your ability, send for "CLUES TO GOOD CARRIAGE," my leaflet giving complete instructions on shoes, stockings and walking techniques that enhance both carriage and legline. Write me: A Lovelier You, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope, and five cents in coin.

DEMS WIN ONLY 2 CONTESTS IN PHILADELPHIA

By FRANK J. AVATO
PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Democrats elected their only city-wide candidates—for district attorney and city controller—and gave the democratic candidate for Supreme Court almost an 80,000 majority Tuesday.

But the victory margins were much smaller than Democratic leaders had predicted and Republicans—who campaigned vigorously on charges of scandals in the Democratic city administration—called it a moral victory.

Said Mayor Richardson Dilworth, in analyzing the vote:

"The voters in effect, and properly so, said you have done a good job during the past 10 years. However, during the past year the Democratic party has been riding too high, and the voters have told the Democrats you have to watch your p's and q's."

GREEN NOT HAPPY
Congressman William J. Green Jr., the Democratic city chairman, conceded the election "did not go as well as I expected" but said it still was "another decisive victory in which the people have given us a renewed vote of confidence."

It was just a year ago that President Kennedy carried Philadelphia by almost 320,000 votes—as compared to his winning margin of around 118,000 in the entire state. This time Green was predicting a 100,000-vote majority for the Democratic candidates.

In the city voting, Justice Anne X. Alperin, former state attorney general who was appointed to the high court last summer, defeated Judge Henry X. O'Brien of Allegheny County common pleas court by an unofficial count of 349,751 to 270,391.

OTHER RESULTS

Alexander Hemphill, city controller won re-election, defeating Joseph Bruno—336,433 to 283,385. James C. Crumlish, who was appointed district attorney by a panel of judges last summer, won election to a full term over Theodore B. Smith Jr.—329,737 to 283,910.

Five constitutional amendments and five loan proposals involving $65.5 million also were approved. GOP leaders from both the regular organization and the Republican Alliance, which was formed in opposition to the organization after President Kennedy carried the city by such a large majority, viewed the election with renewed hope.

AUTOS COLLIDE

Two automobiles were involved in a minor collision on Center Square, Hanover, Monday at 2:30 p.m. Hanover police identified the operators of the vehicles involved as M. E. Racey, New Oxford R. 2, and Neil DeVerle Caner, Baltimore. Damage was estimated at $75 to the Racey vehicle and there was no reported damage to the Caner car. No one was hurt.

ADVERTISE IN THE TIMES

FIRE FIGHTERS HOPE TO BREAK COSTLY BLAZE

By JOE LEWIS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An army of 2,300 men, hacking across flaming canyons, have encircled one of two monstrous fires in the Santa Monica Mountains—and fought the other to a standstill.

If winds stay down today, firemen hope to gain the upper hand against both blazes, termed the worst fire outbreak in Southern California history. Tuesday night firemen contained—but did not control—the fire in the Bel-Air area, home of millionaires and movie stars. They drove tractors and bulldozers around fiery brush and inaccessible canyons to clear a swath 20 to 25 feet wide around the flames' perimeter.

259 HOMES
Assessing damage from the three-day-old fires, officials gave this estimate: more than $15 million worth of property damage; 259 homes destroyed (all but nine in the Bel-Air section); hundreds of others badly damaged and scorched; 11,000 acres of mountain watershed, prime defense against spring floods, destroyed. Each blaze covers about 5,500 acres. At their closest points, the fires were about one to two miles apart.

There were no reports of death.

About 100 firemen and residents were injured, none seriously. Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who declared Los Angeles County a disaster area, has appealed to President Kennedy for federal aid.

THOUSANDS FLEE

Many of the destroyed homes were in the $100,000 class. Celebrities whose homes were destroyed: Burt Lancaster, Joe E. Brown, Joan Fontaine, Richard Boone, Lawrence Welk, Robert Taylor, James Garner, Steve Cochran, Fred MacMurray. Thousands fled homes and classrooms. They included former Vice President Richard M. Nixon, movie stars, industrialists, housewives and school children.

Only a few of the displaced residents took advantage of three emergency Red Cross shelters.

Many congregated at the nearby Beverly-Hilton Hotel. They clattered about the spacious lobby—women trailing mink, children hauling toys, executives carrying expensive paintings and jewelry. One man, clad in cowboy clothes, lugged in his saddle and two guns.

Most of the property damage is in the Bel-Air portion of the Santa Monica Mountains, known locally as the Hollywood Hills.
